To offer guidance for career counselling The Placement Cell of South Calcutta Girls College arranged for an awareness programme related to TCS NQT Employability on 23rd November, 2023. The speaker for the event was Dimple Chatterjee, Regional Head-TCS NQT-East, Tata Consultancy Services. Total of 212 students were benefitted with this programme where the students got a clear perception about the National Qualifier Test which assesses the various levels of test candidates on core cognitive processes required for centre level jobs, industrial know how and skills in the desired fields. The students interacted with the speaker and cleared their queries regarding coding and aptitude round conducted in the exam. The students received a confidence regarding application to different corporate jobs to start their career with.
