

South Calcutta Girls' College

PROGRAMME OUTCOME/ PROGRAMME SPECIFIC OUTCOME/ COURSE OUTCOME

FOUR YEAR B.A. COURSE IN PHILOSOPHY (HONOURS WITH OR WITHOUT RESEARCH) BASED ON CURRICULUM AND CREDIT FRAMEWORK (CCF,2022)

PROGRAMME OUTCOME

PO1-Philosophy and Society: Proper understanding of philosophy helps to develop a holistic attitude towards the society among the students.

PO2- Logical , critical and constructive thinking: A student can express his analytical outlook and critical opinion about the important issues like human rights, gender discrimination, war, violence etc.

PO3 – Scope for higher studies and development of reseach skills: A student develops the ability to engage in different areas of research in social sciences that leads to enrichment of Indian Knowledge systems.

PO4 – Ability to appear in competitive examinations: Pursuing the programme helps a student to secure jobs in different government, non-government organizations as well as in private spheres.

PROGRAMME SPECIFIC OUTCOME

PSO1- After completing graduation in Philosophy, students will be capable of understanding the application of philosophical knowledge in other interdisciplinary fields like Political Science, Sociology, Sanskrit etc.

PSO2- Logic is an important branch of philosophy, study of which develops ability to think logically and increase the power of analysis.

PSO3 – Psychology being an important branch of Philosophy, it opens up the opportunity to become a professional psychological counsellor in government or non-government organizations.

PSO4- Make them capable of identifying their personal value system, to respect the viewpoint of others and apply them in current situation.

PSO5 – The course curriculum inculcates among students ethical concepts of right and wrong which helps them to become complete human being. Nowadays, “Ethics committee” have become an indispensable part of industries, firms, hospitals, corporate institutions and HR organizations where a student can easily place himself.

SEMESTER -1

COURSE OUTCOME:

1. PHI-H: CORE COURSE

DSCC-1: FUNDAMENTALS OF PHILOSOPHY

CO 1-. Introducing the nature and subject matter of philosophy.

CO 2-Understanding the various branches of Philosophy—Epistemology, Metaphysics
And ethics.

CO3-Analysing the basic concepts of Philosophy like substance, knowledge, rights and virtue.

CO4- Discovering the inter-relationships between the fundamental concepts of the Subject.

CO5- Encouraging critical analysis and discussion of the subject-matter.

2.PHI-H (SKILL ENHANCEMENT COURSE)

SEC-MAN AND NATURE

CO 1- Understanding the meaning of the word nature: its narrow and broad sense.

CO 2- Analysing the classical and Indian attitude and Western attitude towards nature.

CO 3- Exploring the relationship between these attitudes.

CO 4 Comprehending the concepts of value---intrinsic value, subjective and objective value of nature.

CO 5 Developing an attitude of respect and awareness towards protection and conservation of nature and its resources.

PHI-MD Interdisciplinary Course (IDC)

Philosophy of Peace and Conflict Resolution

CO 1-Critically discuss the concepts of Peace and its typologies.

CO 2-Analysing the philosophical approaches to peace and conflict resolution from Kantian, Gandhian and Tagore's perspectives.

CO 3- Acquainting the students with the knowledge of various theories of Peace-building.

CO 4-Creating a comprehensive concept of gender and understand how war has a significant impact on people at large.

CO 5- Motivating the students to link up the theoretical concepts of peace with the practical global situations. A student develops the ability to analyse national and international conflicting situations in politics. He can form ideas regarding the sustainable measures to build up a peaceful society, free from prejudices and discriminations.

