

South Calcutta Girls' College

Department of Sociology

Subject: SOCIOLOGY

Courses of study under curriculum and credit framework (CCF, 2022)

Programme Outcome

After completion of Graduation in Sociology, they will be eligible for pursuing career in the following sector:-

- In higher studies and research in various universities and research institutes.
- In various types of government and Non-government jobs.
- In educational institution,
- NGOs.
- Field of Medical Social Work
- In hospital and any health sector.
- In Corporate Sector.
- Welfare departments/ Organizations both Govt and private.
- Liason officer. etc

South Calcutta Girls' College

Department of Sociology

Subject: SOCIOLOGY

Courses of study under curriculum and credit framework (CCF, 2022)

Programme Specific Outcome

Graduation in sociology offers the following outcomes:-

- In government sector, sociology students are recruited in various welfare departments like labour welfare, child welfare, women welfare, tribal welfare etc and also they are eligible for some planning projects like urban planner, town planner, liaison officer, also in municipal corporation there are several welfare paste and in rural area law welfare offices, panchayat welfare offices etc.
- In non government sector, the job scope of sociology student is very bright because in various kinds of NGO where field workers, supervisor, senior field supervisor, communication volunteers, entrepreneur officer and also teaches of various government sponsored project like integrated programme of street children, national child labour project, shikshalayaprakalpa etc.
- In educational institutions , sociology students are appointed as social counselors who would monitor the socio cultural and familial aspect of students learning.
- In hospital and other types of health sector, sociology students are recruited as medical social worker.
- In corporate sector, sociology students are hired as social analyst and management of corporate social responsibilities.

South Calcutta Girls' College

Department of Sociology

Subject: SOCIOLOGY

COURSE OUTCOME

PAPER DSCC- SOC-H-CC-1

- The students will be able to understand the subject matter of sociology by focusing on the nature, scope and perspective of sociology about society and also its various aspects.
- The students will be able to make a relationship between common sensual knowledge and sociological knowledge.
- In this paper, the students will be made aware of each and every concept of society accurately.
- The students will know the differences and similarities between sociology and other social sciences very frequently.
- The students can develop critical understanding regarding various social institutions and their mechanisms specially controlling mechanisms.

COURSE OUTCOME

Paper-Gender Sensitization –SOCH-SEC-1

- The course will help to understand the concept, meaning and construction of gender in our contemporary social system.
- The students will be able to understand the concept of gender binary and also to develop the idea about gender discrimination into concept of LGBTQ+ categories.
- In this unit, students will be more aware about gender inequality in our patriarchal Indian society and also their practicing social evils like female infanticide, child marriage etc.
- In this unit, students will be aware regarding various constitutional and legal measures of central and state government to reduce problems like eve teasing, rape, domestic violence and sexual harassment in workplace.
- The students will learn and develop the capacity to counsel the victims and to adjust them with mainstream society.

