About the Seminar

Bengali literature holds a special place in the field of literature. Literary practitioners have contributed significantly through novels, poems, short-story, drama alongside other allied genres and continue to do so. This is equally true of the literature of West Bengal and Bangladesh.

Newer trends have been evident in the literature of West Bengal and Bangladesh through the decades. These trends have not only contributed to the development of the literary tradition but have also enriched it.

The decade of 1970's is particularly significant in the literary movement of progression and enrichment in the social, political, literary and cultural life of the region. Therefore, to examine the essence of contemporary literature of the Bangla speaking people on either side of the border, the Department of Bengali of South Calcutta Girls' College is organising a one-day international seminar on the theme: 'Literary Trends of two Bengals : From the 1970 to 2019'

Placement and Career Counselling

South Calcutta Girls' College

REPORT OF PLACEMENT CELL REGARDING STUDENTS' OFF CAMPUS AND ON CAMPUS RECRUITMENT DURING 2016-2021

Session 2020-2021:

Session 2020-2021 was under pandemic situation when physical presence of students and teachers in college were totally absent. No outgoing students were placed during the year. To offer guidance for career counselling we decided to organise a webinar on personality development by placement cell along with IQAC of our college. Total of 159 students were benefitted with the webinar where self-development counselling helped them to identify and improve any areas of life that might need attention. Students interacted with our speaker Mitul Mukherjee Sengupta, Image Consultant and Director of Stratical Vocational Skills Pvt.Ltd and got clear perceptions regarding clarifying a problems, developing increased confidence, exploring opportunities for change, improving personal skills, learning to make better decisions and managing anxiety for job interviews and any kind of training programmes for their near future.

About Institute:	South Calcutta Girls' College has a special position in Kolkata heritage. It is the first college established for women in south of Kolkata in 1932 by eminent scholars and educationists like Peary Mohan Chatterjee, after whom the college library is named. It was initially a sister organization of the Beltala Girls' School and functioned as a morning college in the school premises till mid-July 1946. The college then shifted to 72, Sarat Bose Road, Kolkata- 700025, where it stands now. The college celebrated its Platinum Jubilee in 2007. The college is dedicated to the all-round development of young women, helping them to face the challenges of the modern world. Besides encouraging educational achievements, the institution also lays emphasis on fostering self-confidence and inculcating the right values so that our students can develop as responsible and aware citizens. The college has been accredited B++ in the second cycle in 2016.
