INVITED LECTURE TOPIC- ENVIRONMENTAL MOVEMENT: SOME CONTEMPORARY TRENDS

SPEAKER-Dr.Shoma Choudhury Lahiri, Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology, St. Xavier's College, Kolkata

DESCRIPTION OF THE EVENT- The speaker introduced the term environment and the various connotations given to it by different groups of people. She highlighted the dualism between development and environment and drew upon research material to show how states such as Uttarakhand foregrounded their demand for separate statehood by highlighting issues of underdevelopment in the area. Discussions around environment are often anti-development and the speaker argued that as such that's largely the paradigm within which it is organised. Environmentalism can be varied in its forms and while Ramchandra Guha speaks of the environmentalism of the poor, Baviskar writes about bourgeoisie environmentalism. She drew attention towards a convergence of various kinds of social and environmental movements. The talk concluded with the speaker answering several interesting questions by the students.

Report of the Webinar on “The Ethics of Care”

The Department of Philosophy organized a webinar on the topic “The Ethics of Care.” on 09.07.2021 at 3PM. Dr. Shyamasree Bhattacharyya, Associate Professor of Philosophy, University of Calcutta gave a lucid presentation on the topic which is a recent trend in feminist philosophy. She discussed the different aspects of traditional ethics that ignore the feminine experiences and relationships. Social context and connections appear to be fundamental in care ethics where an individual surrenders his personal motives for the sake of people who need help and support. The topic is very relevant during the COVID times when the whole world is facing utter crisis and helplessness. The lecture was followed by a question-and-answer session and it was well appreciated. The webinar was attended by 100 participants approximately.
